NEGRONI

Originating from Italy in the 1940s, traditionally 1 part Gin, 1 part Campari and 1 part Vermouth Rosso. One of the earliest reports of a drink by the name "Negroni" came from Orson Welles in correspondence with the Coshocton Tribune while working in Rome on 'Cagliostro' in 1947, where he described a new drink called the Negroni, "The bitters are excellent for your liver, the gin is bad for you. They balance each other."

MARGARITA

Tequila MUST come from one of five authorized states in Mexico: Guanajuato, Jalisco, Michoacan, Nayarit or Tamaulipas. If it comes from somewhere else, it must be called something else ie. Mezcal, Raicilla etc. The origins of Tequila date back to 250-300 A.D. when the Aztec Indians first fermented the juice of the agave to produce their ceremonial wine. 'Pulque.' Margarita is the Spanish word for 'Daisy.'
